12th Annual TMF Qurbani Drive

Qurbani 2015

Eid-ul Adha means "The Festival of Sacrifice." It starts on 10th Dhul Hajj, and lasts for 3 days. Muslims who can afford to sacrifice livestock animals (usually goat, sheep, cattle or camel) do so, as a symbol of Prophet Ibrahim (AS)'s ultimate sacrifice as mentioned in the Quran (Surah Saffat, verses 102-108); this sacrifice is called "Qurbani." The meat is equally distributed amongst themselves, their neighbors and relatives, and the poor and hungry.

Since 2005, TMF has been arranging Qurbani on your behalf and donating the meat and proceeds of skins to the orphans and deserving students studying in Tameer-e-Jannat Science School, a complete educational and residential facility at the TM City of Education, Fateh Jang, District Attock. Every year, TMF has continued its efforts and sponsored the deserving children which include the 2005 earthquake hit regions, internally displaced children of KPK and the 2010-2011 flood affectees.
